

Advanced Vocabulary Assessment: Unit 3

Focus on Health, Phrasal Verbs & Idiomatic Expressions

English Language Department

Part 1: Technical Vocabulary & Phrasal Verbs in Context

Fill in the gaps with the most appropriate term from the list. Note that you may need to change the verb form (e.g., adding -ing or -ed).

List: Burn calories, Memory, Cut down, Cut out, Work out, Lead to, Miss out.

1. Medical research suggests that a sedentary lifestyle will inevitably _____ a decrease in cardiovascular efficiency.
2. After years of struggling with allergies, she finally decided to _____ all dairy products from her meals to see if her symptoms improved.
3. To achieve a significant caloric deficit, one must _____ more energy than one consumes through food.
4. Many elderly people engage in cognitive training to prevent _____ loss and maintain mental agility.
5. If you don't keep up with the latest health trends, you might _____ on innovative ways to improve your well-being.
6. Experts recommend _____ on processed sugars rather than eliminating them abruptly to avoid withdrawal symptoms.

Part 2: Nuances in Sleep Expressions

Rewrite the following sentences using the exact sleep idiom that corresponds to the meaning in brackets.

- a. I was so exhausted after the trip that I _____ (slept very deeply) and didn't hear the alarm.
- b. Despite the noise from the construction site next door, the baby was _____ (in a very deep state of sleep).
- c. I've been _____ (moving restlessly in bed) all night because I'm worried about the exam.
- d. It's 3:00 AM and I am still _____ (completely awake); I think I drank too much caffeine.
- e. Since it's Saturday, I think I'll _____ (stay in bed longer than usual) until noon.
- f. He must have _____ (woken up in a bad mood) because he has been shouting at everyone since breakfast.

Part 3: Extreme Adjectives Mastery

Complete the following dialogues using an Extreme Adjective from the vocabulary list (Amazed, Awful, Bizarre, Essential, Exhausted, Fascinating, Hilarious, Huge, Miserable).

- A: Was the comedy show funny?
B: It was absolutely _____! We couldn't stop laughing.
- A: How do you feel after the 20km hike?
B: To be honest, I am completely _____. I need to sit down.
- A: Did you like the documentary about the brain?
B: Yes, I found it _____. I learned so many new things!
- A: Is it important to drink water during a workout?
B: It is absolutely _____ if you want to stay hydrated.
- A: What did you think of his strange behavior?
B: It was quite _____; I've never seen anything like it.

Part 4: Translation & Precision

Translate the following complex sentences into English using the specific vocabulary from Unit 3.

1. Es imprescindible reducir el consumo de bebidas energéticas para disminuir la ansiedad.

2. Me quedé dormido en el sofá porque estaba exhausto tras entrenar en el gimnasio.

3. Consulta con la almohada antes de decidir si quieres empezar esta nueva actividad.

Answer Key (Respuestas - Nivel Avanzado)

Part 1: 1. Lead to. 2. Cut out. 3. Burn (calories). 4. Memory. 5. Miss out. 6. Cutting down.

Part 2: a. Slept like a log. b. Fast asleep. c. Tossing and turning. d. Wide awake. e. Have a lie-in. f. Got out of bed on the wrong side.

Part 3: 1. Hilarious. 2. Exhausted. 3. Fascinating. 4. Essential. 5. Bizarre.

Part 4:

1. It is essential to cut down on energy drinks to reduce anxiety.
2. I fell asleep on the sofa because I was exhausted after working out at the gym.
3. Sleep on it before deciding if you want to take up this new activity.