

Grammar Practice: Reported Speech

Essential Grammar Exercises

Instrucciones

Utiliza la teoría de cambios de tiempos verbales (tense changes) para transformar las siguientes oraciones de Estilo Directo a Estilo Indirecto (Reported Speech). Recuerda mover el tiempo verbal un paso hacia el pasado siguiendo las reglas de tu tabla.

Parte 1: Tense Changes

1. Present Simple → Past Simple
Direct: He said, "I love classical music."
Reported: He said he _____ classical music.
2. Present Continuous → Past Continuous
Direct: She said, "I am studying for my exam."
Reported: She said she _____ for her exam.
3. Present Perfect Simple → Past Perfect Simple
Direct: They said, "We have visited London before."
Reported: They said they _____ London before.
4. Past Simple → Past Perfect Simple
Direct: He said, "I watched that movie yesterday."
Reported: He said he _____ that movie.
5. Past Continuous → Past Perfect Continuous
Direct: She said, "I was waiting for the bus."
Reported: She said she _____ for the bus.
6. Past Perfect Simple → Past Perfect Simple (No change)
Direct: He said, "I had finished the report."
Reported: He said he _____ the report.

Parte 2: Modal Verbs

7. Will → Would
Direct: She said, "I will help you with the luggage."
Reported: She said she _____ me with the luggage.
8. Can → Could
Direct: He said, "I can swim very fast."
Reported: He said he _____ very fast.
9. Must → Have to Direct: The doctor said, "You must take this medicine."
Reported: The doctor said I _____ that medicine.

Answer Key (Respuestas)

- a)* loved
- b)* was studying
- c)* had visited
- d)* had watched
- e)* had been waiting
- f)* had finished
- g)* would help
- h)* could swim
- i)* had to take